Question 1

You received an email from your cousin, Gina, who wants your opinion on something.

> Hi,
> I've been asked to choose a sports club but I can't decide which club to join. Which sports club do you think I should choose? Why do you think it's suitable for me? What can I learn from joining a sports club?
> I hope to hear from you soon.
> Bye!

Write an email to your cousin in about 80 words in the space provided.

2.2 OVERALL PERFORMANCE - PART 1 (QUESTION 1): SHORT COMMUNICATIVE MESSAGE (EMAIL)

In this section, the candidates are required to write a response in clear and accurate Standard English, using a style and tone appropriate to the task. For SPM 2021, the task required the candidates to write a reply to an email received from Gina, the writer's cousin. Based on the rubric, the candidates are expected to provide a suggestion on a sports club that Gina should join. Candidates are also required to provide details on why the sports club is suitable and what Gina can learn from joining the sports club.

Part 1 is intended for lower-proficiency (A2 level) candidates. Hence, the higher-proficiency candidates were able to score full marks (20 marks) for this part. Candidates did well in Part 1 and even the low proficient candidates managed to get some marks. There were not many unattempted scripts for this question.

2.3 PERFORMANCE OF CANDIDATES ACCORDING TO THE GROUP

2.3.1 High Performance

Part 1 is targeted at A2 level. Hence, the high-proficiency candidates were able to score full marks (20 marks) easily. They were able to fulfil all the task requirements. Target reader was fully informed.

2.3.2 Average Performance

The candidate is able to suggest the Ping Pong Club as the sports club.

Ping Pong Club! Ping Pong is very suitable for you as you don't prefer too much of running or leg movements. The bat and ball are fairly cheap too and you can purchase them in any sports shops.

The candidate has also stated that the Ping Pong club is suitable for Gina because it does not involve too much running or leg movements. The candidate has given another reason which is that the bat and ball are fairly cheap and can be purchased in any sports shop.

iii. Organisation

The candidate uses simple connectors and a limited number of cohesive devices appropriately.

I am delighted that you want my opinion on this matter. I guess you haven't forgotten that I am a sports freak. In my opinion, you should join the Ping Pong Club! Ping Pong is very suitable for you as you don't prefer too much of running or leg movements. The bat and ball are fairly cheap too and you can purchase them in any sports shops.

Ping Pong is very suitable for you as you don't prefer too much of running or leg movements. The bat and ball are fairly cheap too and you can purchase them in any sports shops.

2.5 PART 2: THE QUESTION

Question 2

Your class has been discussing the ways people can show kindness to others and your teacher has asked you to write an essay on it.

In your essay, you should write about:

- an act of kindness you experienced
- why we must be kind to others
- how to encourage people to be kind

Use all the notes above and give reasons for your point of view.

Write your essay in 125 – 150 words in an appropriate style.

2.6 OVERALL PERFORMANCE - PART 2 (QUESTION 2): GUIDED WRITING

In this section, the candidates are required to write a response in Standard English, using a style appropriate to the task. For SPM 2021, the task requires the candidates to write an essay discussing the ways people can show kindness to others. The following notes are provided: write about an act of kindness they have experienced, why they must be kind to others and how to encourage others to be kind. Candidates are required to use all the notes provided and give reasons for their point of view.
Average candidates were able to answer Part 2. It might be due to this part being intended for B1 level candidates. Most candidates had problems with Communicative Achievement (CA) because they did not use the correct conventions. However, the good candidates were able to score well in this part.

2.7 PERFORMANCE OF CANDIDATES ACCORDING TO THE GROUP

2.7.1 High Performance

Part 2 is targeted at B1 level. Therefore, the high proficiency candidates were able to score high marks. They fulfilled all the tasks requirements and used the correct conventions of the communicative tasks to communicate straightforward ideas.

2.7.2 Average Performance

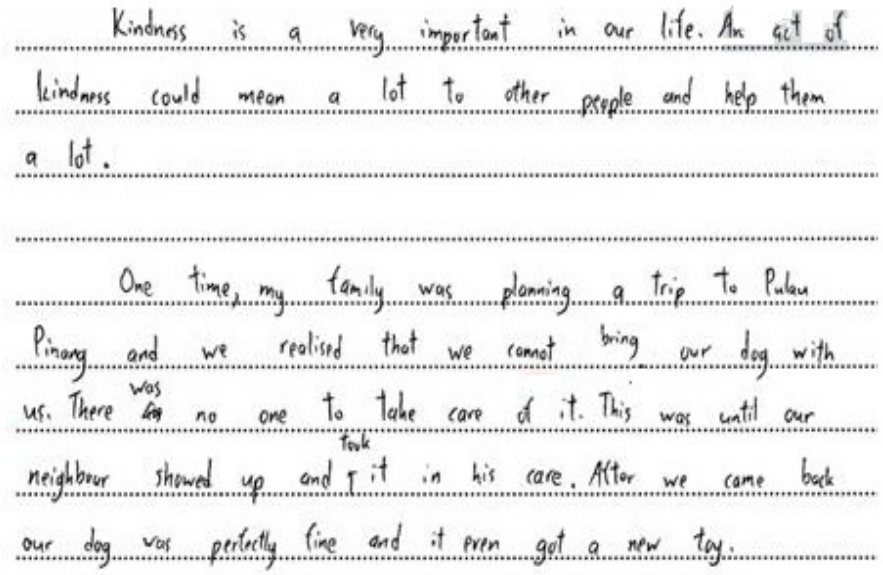

The candidates in this group were able to produce a text that communicated simple ideas in simple ways. Text was connected using simple connectors and a limited number of cohesive devices.

2.8 REVIEW OF CANDIDATES' RESPONSES FOR PART 2

2.8.1 Examples of answer by candidates with high achievement

i. Content

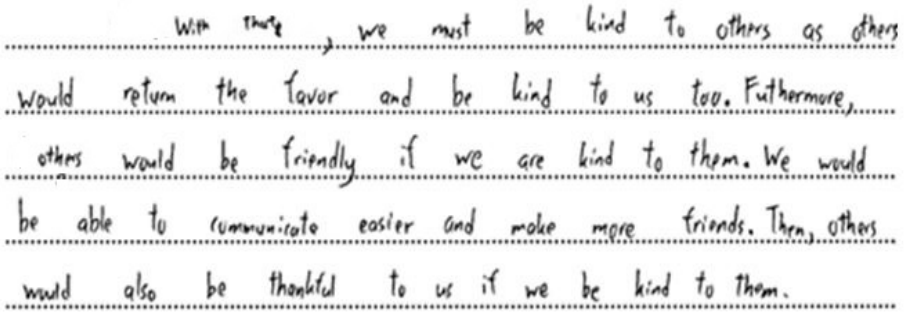

All content is relevant to the task. Target reader is fully informed. The candidate has addressed the first task by writing about an act of kindness that he experienced.

Kindness is a very important in our life. An act of kindness could mean a lot to other people and help them a lot.

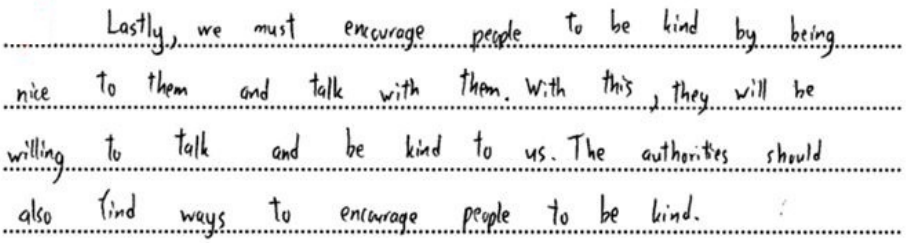

One time, my family was planning a trip to Pulau Pinang and we realised that we cannot bring our dog with us. There was no one to take care of it. This was until our neighbour showed up and took it in his care. After we came back our dog was perfectly fine and it even got a new toy.

The candidate has addressed the second task by giving his view on why we must be kind to others.

With that, we must be kind to others as others would return the favor and be kind to us too. Futhermore, others would be friendly if we are kind to them. We would be able to communicate easier and make more friends. Then, others would also be thankful to us if we be kind to them.

The candidate has addressed the last note by explaining how to encourage others to be kind.

Lastly, we must encourage people to be kind by being nice to them and talk with them. With this, they will be willing to talk and be kind to us. The authorities should also find ways to encourage people to be kind.

2.9 PART 3: THE QUESTION

Question 5

Your teacher has asked you to write a story for your English Club newsletter. The story must begin with the following words:

If I were given three wishes, I would ...

In your story, you must:

- describe your wishes
- talk about the impact of your wishes on you and others

Write your story.

2.10 OVERALL PERFORMANCE - PART 3 (QUESTION 5): EXTENDED WRITING

This question is one of three choices for Part 3. Candidates are given a stimulus which requires them to write a story in about 200-250 words using the 8 words given as the opening. The story must describe the 3 wishes as well as the impact of the wishes on the writer and others.
This was the most difficult question among the 3 choices in Part 3 and there were not many takers.

2.11 PERFORMANCE OF CANDIDATES ACCORDING TO THE GROUP

2.11.1 High Performance

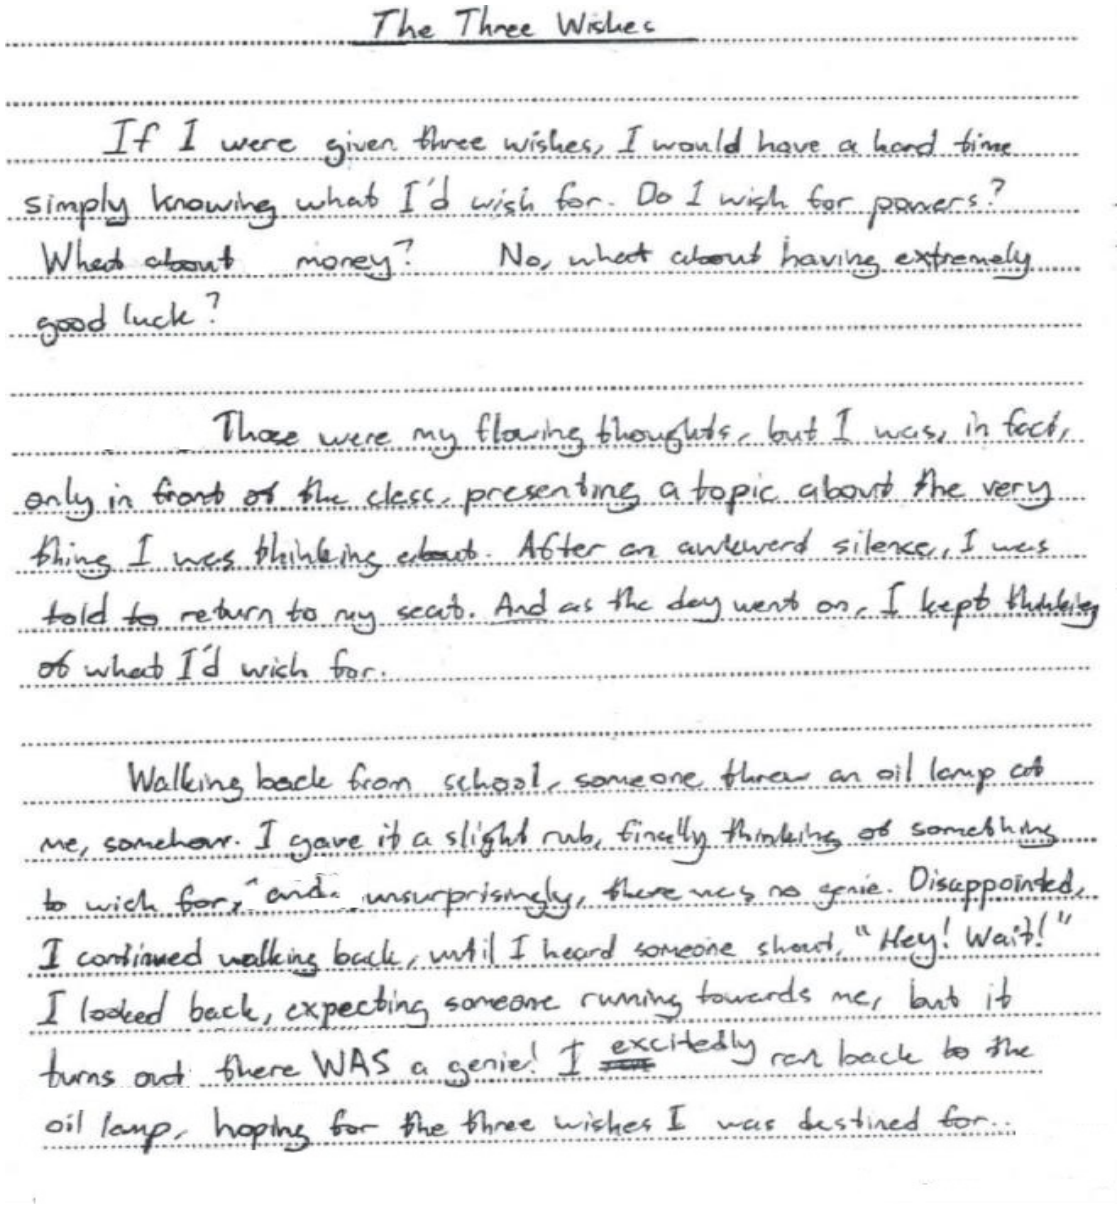

Part 3 is targeted at B2 level. Therefore, the high proficiency candidates were able to hold the target reader's attention and communicated with ease, fulfilling all communicative purposes. They were able to write a well-organised and coherent story.

2.11.2 Average Performance

The candidates in this group were only able to produce a story with minor irrelevances and/or omissions. They only used a range of everyday vocabulary with occasional inappropriate use of less common lexis.

2.12 REVIEW OF CANDIDATES' RESPONSES FOR PART 3

2.12.1 Examples of answer by candidates with high achievement

The Three Wishes

If I were given three wishes, I would have a hard time simply knowing what I'd wish for. Do I wish for powers? What about money? No, what about having extremely good luck?

These were my flowing thoughts, but I was, in fact, only in front of the class, presenting a topic about the very thing I was thinking about. After an awkward silence, I was told to return to my seat. And as the day went on, I kept thinking of what I'd wish for.

Walking back from school, someone threw an oil lamp at me, somehow. I gave it a slight rub, finally thinking of something to wish for, and unsurprisingly, there was no genie. Disappointed, I continued walking back, until I heard someone shout, "Hey! Wait!" I looked back, expecting someone running towards me, but it turns out there WAS a genie! I excitedly ran back to the oil lamp, hoping for the three wishes I was destined for..
