School Recycling Sale

Our school is organising a Recycling Sale next Wednesday to promote responsible consumer habits. Students are encouraged to bring clean, reusable items such as books, clothes, and stationery to sell or exchange. This programme is to teach students to reduce waste and give value to used items. All items must be in good condition. The sale will be held at the school canteen from 8 a.m. to 12 p.m. Let's work together to support sustainable consumer practices and protect our environment!

1 The main purpose of the Recycling Sale is to

A collect recyclable items for sale or reuse.

B educate students about reusing items.

C minimise waste and reuse items.

Hi Sarah,

I hope you're doing well. I wanted to remind you about the Cultural Exchange Programme next week. We will be hosting students from Japan at our school from 22–24 April. You are assigned to be their 'buddy' during their stay. A briefing session will be held on Monday, 8 a.m. at the hall on the upcoming tasks.

– Ms Yui

2 What is the main purpose of the message?

A To inform Sarah about her role in the programme

B To invite Sarah to the exchange programme

C To notify Sarah about the briefing

Date: 14 April 2026

A wallet was found in the school library on 13th April 2026 during the afternoon hours. It is black in colour and contains some identification cards and cash. The rightful owner is requested to come forward and claim it from the school office. Proper identification must be provided before collecting the item. If not claimed within one week, it will be handed over to the authorities.

Office Administration

3 From the notice, we know that

A Simple Step To Save The Environment

In recent years, reusable water bottles have gained popularity among teenagers as an eco-friendly choice. By using these bottles, students can (0) _____ reduce plastic waste while also developing more responsible daily habits. Because of this, a growing number of students are trying to cut (9) _____ on single-use plastics in their everyday routines.

One reason for this change is increased awareness of environmental problems. Schools and social media often (10) _____ attention to issues such as pollution and climate change. As a result, young people are more willing to take action and make better choices.

Reusable bottles are not only practical but also stylish. Many brands offer colourful designs that appeal to teenagers. This makes it easier for students to (11) _____ the habit of carrying their own bottles instead of buying drinks in plastic containers.

In addition, using reusable bottles can (12) _____ a positive impact on the environment. It reduces the amount of waste that ends up in landfills and oceans. Over time, small actions like this can lead to (13) _____ improvements in environmental protection.

However, some students still find it difficult to change their habits. They may feel that bringing their bottles is inconvenient. Therefore, it is important to (14) _____ awareness and encourage consistent behaviour.

Governments and organisations also play a role. They can (15) _____ campaigns to promote eco-friendly products and educate the public. With the right support, more people will be able to make environmentally friendly choices.
